POLITICS.

Hot county campaign up to the voters in a mass of Republican faction snarls.

Toda's national election to bring out a record "off year" vote, with Europe joining in interest in the result because of League of Nations issue.

Heavy Vote Certain;
League Again Issue

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

An unprecedeted vote for an "off year" is destined to be cast today when the nation chooses the members of the Sixty-eighth congress, which will convene in December, 1923, unless earlier summoned by the President.

On the eve of the balloting the leaders of both the major parties were welcoming a heavy vote. While prepared for the loss of sixty-five seats in the house, the Republicans were confident of retaining control of that body by a small majority and of holding their own in the senate, now Republican by a majority of 24.

The Democratic leaders read in the prospect of a large vote the fulfillment of predictions of a landslide that would sweep the Republicans out of domination of the house, reduce their majority in the senate, and register emphatic protest against the record of the Harding administration and the party in power.

Even Break" in Western Weather.

Weather conditions may determine its results in some states. A heavy rain has left North Dakota roads deep in mud, a circumstance disadvantageous to Lynn J. Frazier, Republican candidate for senator, who is supported by the Nonpartisan League farmers, and favorable to his Democratic opponent, F. T. O'Connor, and to the Nonpartisan League in cities and towns.

A snowfall has made Wyoming roads almost impassable. Thousands of ranchers supporting Senator Kendrick, Democrat, will be unable to reach the polls, the advantage accruing to his Republican opponent, F. W. Mondell.

In thirty-three states thirty-four senators will be elected. Of this number thirty-one will be elected to regular six year terms, beginning March 4 next, and three to full vacancies. One senator, Frederick Hale, Republican, was reelected to a regular six year term in the Maine election Sept. 11 last.

In 43 congressional districts in the whole country representatives will be elected, the other four members of the house, all Republican, having been elected in Maine.

Look for "Off Year" Record.

While the voters have been reported in an apathetic state of mind in many parts of the country, it is not doubted that the total number of ballots cast in the congressional election today will break all records except those of presidential elections.

It is not expected that anywhere near the 27,000,000 men who voted in 1920 will go to the polls today, but the 1918 record doubtless will be outdone. Women voted in all states for the first time in 1920, and this is the first "off year" election in which their influence will be directly exerted.

The contest will be confined to thirty-six states, Maine having already voted and the election in the Democratic "solid south" being perfunctory.

Most of the congressional gains made by the Republicans in Mr. Harding's farce into the Democratic stronghold in 1920 will be yielded back today.

In the Senate there are now sixty Republicans and thirty-six Democrats; in the house, 382 Republicans and 132 Democrats. In the 1918 and 1920 congressional elections the Republicans captured nearly 100 districts which were either normally Democratic or so close that they frequently were represented by Democrats. It is in these districts, scattered throughout the country, that the pitched battles will take place today and the outcome determined.

Europe's Ear at the Phone.

It is not going too far to say that the election today is of more than national interest, for intelligence from foreign capitals is to the effect that the return of the United States to the world stage in Europe is the most important factor in the European nations, which have been maneuvering in every conceivable way to rich Uncle Sam into their affairs with their check book and army and navy, have been keenly disappointed by the policy of nonentanglement pursued by the Harding administration.

The European statesmen have given up, it is understood, however, that President Harding will be rebuked and his European policy repudiated by the election of a Democratic house and a marked reduction of the Republican majority in the senate.

James M. Cox of Ohio, despite the walloping he sustained in the Presidential election as champion of the Wilson program of internationalism, came home from Europe recently full of the project of getting us into

HAMMERSTEIN WIDOW MISSING; SAD NOTE LEFT

New York, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Oscar Hammerstein, widow of the noted impresario, disappeared this morning from the home of Miss Julia Farley, a trained nurse, with whom she had been staying three weeks. In a note she left for Max Rubin, a Columbia student, who had befriended her, was written:

"My Dear Mr. Rubin: Thank you so much for all you have done for me. I am very tired and I don't think I can stand it any longer."

Rubin fears for Mrs. Hammerstein. In one of his talks with her she is alleged to have said:

"Don't be surprised to find me dead over the grave of my husband."

She had lost all of her property through a succession of lawsuits.

hall candidates—Righelmer, Loman, and "Doc" Peter—and the instructions were to "trust anything" for these men.

In fact, reports of such activities were becoming so general that some doubt was felt whether the Democratic organization could hold a large number of their captains away from the chance to gain votes for their favorite candidates by the acceptance of such offers.

The Democratic managers said there was little danger of their ticket being materially weakened by these tactics, but they said there was a big chance that the "Republicans will cut their own throats."

Society Indorses.

Ordinarily last minute endorsements little figure, but there was one yesterday that was considered important. In connection with its recommendations for the legislative platform, the Indiana State Committee of the Chicago Medical society indorsed several county candidates. Peter M. Hoffman, who, as coroner, has come under the scrutiny of the doctors, was not endorsed as sheriff. The preference went to James M. Dailey, his opponent.

The committee's other recommendations for county officers were: Edward K. Cermak, Cook county judge; Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board, and T. J. Crowe, for sanitary trustee, all Democrats. The endorsements were mailed to 11,500 physicians and dentists and 2,500 nurses, so they are considered of political significance.

MILK PRODUCERS HINT FAMINE; RUN AT A LOSS

Milk producers, so far from being able to do business at lower prices, will face serious financial difficulties if their present revenue is not increased, and consumers will ultimately face a milk famine.

This was the warning served on Chicago yesterday by directors of the Milk Producers' association, who met at Hotel La Salle.

"The producers are not meeting expectations in market," said Frank Nichols, president of the association. "We know of numbers of them who are on the verge of going broke, and a still greater number who, fearing bankruptcy, are trying to sell out. There is no milk shortage now, perhaps, but if the producers can't make a profit there will be."

Russell J. Poole, secretary of the cow and high cost committees, reported that about 150 dealers had failed in line with the plan to sell milk at a reduction of 2 cents a quart and cream at 1 cent off.

But Perch was far away, his whereabouts unknown.

Last week he wrote numerous letters to sweethearts in this city. Last night Perch was brought back from Excelsior Springs, Mo., and is locked up at the detective bureau.

ALLIES SPURN TURK EDICT TO BAR WARSHIPS

Retain Military Rule of Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 6.—[By the Associated Press.]—The allied commissioners refuse to discuss the demand of the Angora government that only one warship at a time enter Turkish ports and then only with the consent of the Turkish authorities.

The Turkish Nationalist government has handed no note to the allied high commissioners to the effect that the warships of all nations must ask it for authorization to pass the straits of the Dardanelles, the Havas correspondent here has been informed. They must also salute the new government of Turkey.

Allies Keep Military Control.

Though the Nationalist civil power is in control in Constantinople, the entente does not intend, for the present at least, to lose its grip on the military authority. Great Britain and France are in accord on the point that the Turkish government must accept the convention drawn up at Mudania, and it is not doubted that the other interested countries will fall into line with this policy.

There is every desire, however, to meet Turkish aspirations within proper limit, and to this end the allied commissioners today issued the following statement:

"The inter-allied high commissioners are firmly resolved to observe strict impartiality with regard to events which concern the internal policy of Turkey. The allied governments will continue to apply the clauses of the Mudania convention and maintain order and security in the zones occupied by the allied armies.

It is believed here that the Nationalists will be permitted to send civil servants, other functionaries, and police forces to maintain order in Constantinople as a result of the dissolution of the Tewfik ministry, which leaves the capital without a government.

The Italians, French, and British are agreed that the Angora note is a breach of the Mudania convention, but it is pointed out that a new situation has arisen, and that his person would be regarded as an offense against the Moslem religion.

Yesterday tens of thousands swarmed in the streets near the Yildiz palace, where the sultan is encircled, and many hurried epithets at the tottering ruler hidden behind the walls of the impregnable building. Armed allied soldiers formed a human screen around the palace to prevent the surging masses from getting too close to the place where the sultan resides.

The welter of week-end changes in the control of Constantinople has brought about great consternation and tumult. All the Christians continue in great fear of a massacre.

MOSLEM WORLD BACKS OUSTING OF SULTAN, CLAIM

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 6.—Rafet Pasha, governor of the provinces of Constantinople, told the Turks today the divorce of the church and state had been made with the full knowledge of the Moslem leaders in all parts of the world.

The startling decision of the grand national assembly to dethrone Sultan Mohammed and to separate the dynasty of the Ottomans from all temporal power was not hastily made, but after lengthy deliberations.

"For three years the moral possession of the caliphate has rested with us," said Pasha. "Now we have the quickest-cooking Quaker oats in the world."

It cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. It is the quickest-cooking oats in the world.

The same super-quality, the same exquisite flavor. All Quaker Oats are flaked from queen grain only.

But for "Instant" Quaker oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small thin flakes cook quickly.

"The caliphate title rests with the Osman family, but the present caliph has virtually abdicated and a new one is telling of new demands by Mustapha Kemal.

Administration officials tonight were studying with deepest interest not only the press dispatches from Constantinople, but also such official advice as have been received from Admiral Bristol, American high commissioner at Constantinople.

This government is distinctly on record as favoring the freedom of the Moslem world, and the French have frequently announced attitude of the administration concerning embroilment in the near east, it would appear the job of asserting this principle by force of arms would rest with the allies.

It is believed here that the Nationalists will be permitted to send civil servants, other functionaries, and police forces to maintain order in Constantinople as a result of the dissolution of the Tewfik ministry, which leaves the capital without a government.

PARIS, Nov. 6.—It is expected here that a compromise will be reached on the Turkish Nationalist government's note asking that the allies evacuate Constantinople and that foreign battle-ships obtain permission to enter the Bosphorus and other waters adjacent to the capital.

13,000 WILL EYE VOTE TODAY TO PREVENT FRAUD

Teachers Will Augment Law Enforcing Agencies

Upwards of 13,000 men—policemen, deputy United States marshals, deputy sheriffs, detectives from the state's attorney's office and private detectives—will be on watch for fraud at Cook county's 2,344 polling places at today's election.

The army of paid guardians of the ballot box will be augmented by 2,000 odd school teachers. The schools will be closed at 2 o'clock to permit them to go to the polls and act as watchers. They will remain on duty until the count of the votes at 2 p. m. Every one of the city's 5,661 precincts will be under the eyes of a school teacher according to the plan.

In addition to the policemen, marshals, sheriffs, detectives and teachers, there will be more than 5,000 watchers for the two major parties, making the total number more than 13,000.

Democrats Raise a Fund.

None of the large offices with power to deal with election frauds are in the hands of Democrats. To combat this Richard S. Folsom, chairman of the Democratic Business Men's Association, might announced that $2,500 would be raised by the committee to prosecute frauds or attempted frauds at the election.

"We offer rewards to the total amount of $2,500 for the conviction of persons who commit or attempt to commit fraud," the announcement reads. "A $100 reward will be sufficient to convict in any one case, and larger rewards will be paid for information of more serious frauds."

Boast of Lundin-Thompson workers of what they intend to do on election day warrant the taking of unusual precautions, Mr. Folsom said.

Point to Fraud Peril.

"We realize that with the election machine in full control of the Lundin-Thompson machine, and the replacement of old and tried election officials with the tools of the machine there is a greater danger of frauds being reported to," the statement continues.

A committee composed of leading lawyers will be at the Hotel Sherman, plug-holed, from 6 a. m. to 11 a. m. all day. Any voter who is deprived of his right to vote, or who attempts to disenfranchise citizens by cutting down the number of polling booths or any of the other numerous tricks that have been employed by the minions of the Lundin machine in other campaigns about immediately go in touch with that committee. It will be prepared to protect them in all their rights."

U. S. Marshals Act.

Under authority of an old federal statute making it the duty of a United States marshal to furnish deputies to guard against election frauds when two citizens make the request, United States Marshal R. L. Levy ordered 100 deputies, in twenty automobiles, to patrol the county.

The men busy last night mapping out routes under the supervision of First Deputy Marshal Sam Howard, who divided them into squads of five.

Under the law they have power "to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person who commits or attempts to commit" any offense against the election laws or against any of the laws of the United States.

"I have positive evidence that frauds are being planned," Marshal Levy asserted.

United States commissioners on the cases of those arrested by deputy marshals. In the Criminal court, Judges Caverly and Hopkins in the Circuit court, Judges Friend and Fisher, and in the Superior court, Judges David and Pam will sit at regular emergency election hours and go on petitions for writs of habeas corpus.

Chief of Police Fitzmorris has assigned at least one policeman to every precinct in the city and the section of the new wards which include the old river ward territory two men and in a few cases three men have been assigned to each precinct.

In addition twenty-five motorcycle policemen will be held at the city hall.

BIND OWNERS AND STORE PATRONS; LOOT IS $20,000

Thieves entered the fur store of Nathan Teitelbaum, 3717 West Roosevelt road yesterday, bound and gagged three of his customers, his wife, and Esther Millman, his daughter, then escaped with $20,000.

The men used a truck and before the police could be summoned the men had made good their escape. Teitelbaum gave chase, but the bandits soon outdistanced him. They were last seen speeding east in 16th street. The Fillmore street police are searching for the men.

CORONER'S JURY FREE'S FIREMAN WHO SLEW RIVAL

Taking into consideration the "unwritten law," a coroner's jury yesterday exonerated Alfred Schilling, city foreman, 25 years old, 1929 Armitage avenue, who admitted shooting and killing Jack Lanas, 747 Trumbull avenue, when he found Lanas with his wife Saturday night. The wife denied that her husband had come into the house and declared herself innocent of any wrongdoing.

Street Car Men's Union Re-elects All Old Officers

Members of the Street Car Men's union, division 241, last night dissolved their union and went independent, after a meeting in Ashland auditorium. The following were re-nominated: William Quinlan, president; John McLain, vice president; James Tosie, second vice president; Joseph T. Kehoe, recording secretary; William Taber, financial secretary and treasurer; and James J. Brennan, sergeant-at-arms.

Pries realized on Swift & Company sales of 1,000 boxes for the month of November, Nov. 4, 1922, on chocolates sold out ranging from 6.00 cents to 18.00 cents per box, and averaged 13.22 cents per lb.—adv.

THE TRIBUNE'S RECOMMENDATIONS —For Today's Election—

In response to numerous requests which emphasize the length of the ballot and the impossibility of the average voter fully informing himself, The Tribune submits its recommendations.

No attempt has been made to pass upon all of the contests. In several instances a recommendation has been made. In these cases either the issues and the personalities of the candidates have been so squarely before the public that the voter should be able to judge them for himself, or there is no difference between the two candidates.

Where an expression of preference may be given, the voter is advised to consider the record and the cause of good government, an opportunity that otherwise might escape him because of his lack of information, recommendations are made.

GOWAN'S YACHT 5 DAYS OVERDUE AT THE CANARIES

Some Fear Felt for Globe
Circling Spejacks.

(Pictures on back page.) Is the stanch ninety-eight foot yacht, Spejacks, fighting her way through heavy seas and strong head winds in the Atlantic? Has she been driven on the rocks of the forbidding, mountain bound coast of Morocco? Or has something even more disastrous befallen her?

There were questions which friends of A. Y. Gowan, owner of the power yacht and Chicago manager of the Leigh Portland Cement company were asking themselves yesterday, when it was reported that the Spejacks is more than five days overdue at La Palma in the Canary Islands.

Those on Craft.

With Mr. Gowan on board are Mrs. Gowen; Ira J. Ingraham, 1915 Noyes avenue, Evanston; and the crew: Capt. E. H. Clegg, first officer; Captain Jack Lewis, chief engineer, Cleveland; O. W. Calahan, wireless operator, Sydney; Oscar Granowski, second engineer, Sydney; "Tafti Louis," Tahiti, seaman; and "Lovely Charlie," Chinese cook.

The Spejacks has been lost before its world cruise, but it has never been more than two days overdue in any port. The yacht left Gibralter on Oct. 28, starting on the last lap of a trip around the world. The craft was to have docked at La Palma in the Canaries, Wednesday, to have taken to sea bound for St. Vincent, Cape Verde Islands, and from there to Barbados in the West Indies. The last jump was from Barbados to Miami, Fla.

Expected Cabin Doesn't Come.

Capt. Carlson, Chicago secretary of Mr. Gowan's crew, who received a cablegram from him from La Palma on Wednesday. But none came and yesterday he became alarmed and notified friends of the Gowans and S. G. Ingraham, brother of Ira Ingraham, motion picture camera man, who is on board. Bernard F. Rogers, Chicago insurance man, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gowan for the duration of the cruise, and who returned just a week ago, leaving the party at Port Said, declares many things might have happened to delay the Spejacks and holds little fear for the safety of the party.

May Have Hit Head Seas.

"They might have run into heavy seas and strong head winds," Mr. Rogers said, "and in that event the 200 miles a day expected of the boat might be reduced to almost nothing. We have wireless stations on the first part of the trip which reduced our speed to as low as three miles an hour for three days at the time."

It was pointed out the wireless equipment of the yacht has a range of more than 1,000 miles and the ship need at no time in its 705 mile trip be out of touch by wireless with Gibraltar.

FIREMAN HURT IN CRASH.

James P. Flemming, 27, 4646 St. Lawrence avenue, of engine company No. 122, suffered temporary paralysis in his right arm yesterday when he was thrown from an automobile when a steering knuckle broke and the car crashed into a building.

SOCIAL WORKER, IN ILL HEALTH, ENDS HER LIFE

Miss C. M. Matheny
Leaps in Lake.

Miss Columbia Miss Matheny, 25 years old, 4368 Oakdale avenue, former social service worker for the United Charities, who recently resigned her position on account of ill health, yesterday drowned herself in the lake at the foot of 43d street.

The police were summoned by a man who saw her jump into the water and the body was recovered in about an hour. Finding that Miss Matheny had a United Charities card, the police telephoned that organization and Joel D. Hunter, general superintendent identified the body.

Miss Matheny's work with the United Charities had been exceptionally efficient and her resignation was with regret. An uncle, living at Decatur, Ill., was notified. Her only relative living relatively is a married sister.

Leaving her 4 year old daughter with a neighbor, Mrs. Belle Alipet, 28 years old, 3612 North Racine avenue, turned on all the gas jets in the house.

in committing suicide. August Auguste, her second husband, whom she married seven months ago, can give no motive for the act.

Kneeling on an automobile seat cover, with his head immersed in a twenty gallon ash can full of water, the body of Alexander Solon, 39 years old, who once was veteran, was found in the basement of his brother's home at 1215 Berwick avenue.

The keel has been laid for the giant Zeppelin to be built here for the United States government under the contract signed on June 28.

The dirigible is expected to be completed not earlier than August, 1923.

The first flight of the dirigible to America by air will be undertaken, and it is reported here the American commission will make the trip in order to obtain specific knowledge of the methods of operating the craft.

The builders estimate that seventy hours will be required for the trans-Atlantic voyage, which, according to the present plans, will be made by way of Spain, where the airship will land to take on fuel.

The wife of Policeman Tully, who stood at his side while the Judge spoke words of praise, was presented a huge bouquet. At the Tully home, 725 Cole avenue, a dinner was served.

—(By the Associated Press.)

One hundred and twenty-five business men will leave Chicago the latter part of November to tour Santa Fe, N. M., where he will sit as chairman of the commission, which will open on Nov. 9, at the Congress hotel. The Association of Commerce and the Illinois Manufacturers' association will cooperate in directing the tour.

FOR THE
THE FAMILYTROTZKY'S NEW ARMY DAZZLES
REDS OF WORLDSnappy Infantry, Cavalry
in Vast Parade.BY GEORGE SELDES.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
(Copyright 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.)PETROGRAD, Nov. 6.—When once dismayed Russians stood and reviewed the parades of their impotent army a group of 300 representing forty-five countries yesterday watched the army of the Red revolution march through the square of the winter palace. Among those who saluted the Red colors were a dozen American delegates to the third international, which is meeting in celebration of the fifth anniversary of the October revolution.These Americans saw a sight they never will forget. It was a metamorphosis of Leon Trotzky's army, from the rags of two years ago, from the remnants of men and materials which have been at war at home and in foreign fields for seven years almost continuously, there arose today a new Trotzky army. And it was very, too.
A new cavalry, of which Gen. Krasin is still the chief, galloped by, the officers and men shouting wild Cossack yells, waving white swords, which flashed golden in the feeble northern sun.

All Army Services.

British armored cars and light French tanks followed. A sample was offered from all branches of service.Each man had a long coat. Each man of a regiment was dressed alike, and the rhythm of marching feet and the salute, the uniform of faces turning toward the reviewing stand, and the murmuring within the square spoke of the discipline and order of a well-trained European army.Overhead ten army planes flew in formation while a heavy seaplane dropped leaflets.The display of material was prodigal.
It was many times as impressive as that of war machinery, guns, armored cars, etc., which were being moved in hasty made in England and France and captured from Gen. Dennis and other leaders in the civil war.

Five Thousand in Parade.

The cavalry, on dromo little horses,
with flags and many colored pennons, with a great waving of swords, furnished the thrill of the day. Of the 50,000 which paraded, 5,000 were sailors, and in memory of the men of the Russian Aurora, which first fired the shot into the winter palace, and the soldiers who spread the revolution,
civilians and reviewers burst into loud,
long applause.From the Fortress Peter and Paul,
once the prison of the Russian revolutionaries, and now their stronghold, cannon boomed intermittently. Squad, company, and platoon, each
red flag echoed hoarsely the shouts from the grandstand. On the faces of the marchers were smiles. The youthfulness of the soldiers was impressive.
Most of them were less than 18, and few more than 20. Nearly all were peasant sons who, but for the revolution, might have passed, perhaps a little better clad and more strictly ordered, for the sons of the bourgeoisie.The 50,000 women with a military guard of honor who paraded Saturday yesterday were onlookers. Shops were shut. The adherents of the soviets did not seem to care what the bourgeoisie thought about them or their show. Tomorrow the celebration will begin in Moscow.

Sip at U. S.

In their session today the soviet leaders had a Russian revolution experiment, but a success and they predicted that the coming five years would mark successful revolutions in other countries. German delegates to the celebration declared that there would be a Red revolution shortly in Germany.Under the chairmanship of M. Zinovief, the third international, the masses of the People had this evening followed a day of parades outside the winter palace. Forty-five countries were represented and there were numerous American visitors as well as ten delegates. Premier Lenin sent greetings and regret that he was not able to attend.M. Zinovief accused the American government of jailing the best communist workers and he attacked the Socialists."The chief aim of our epoch," said
M. Zinovief, "is to fight the Socialist parties of the second internationale, which are the reactionary forces of the international bourgeoisie."M. Katayama, whom the Japanese government banished on account of his nationalism, congratulated the Red-

"VOTE FOR THE BONUS TODAY"

American Legion members paraded through the loop last night in a demonstration planned to arouse the voters to a realization that they have a chance to further the bonus at the polls today. Photo shows State Commander "Daddy" Schick shaking hands with Color Bearer Wolf.FEAR POLICY OF

BONUS PROPOSALFailure to Vote Is Vote Against It.Spokesmen for the Illinois bonus bond issue, which is before the voters on a referendum, expressed some fear last night that the policy of dry leaders in urging their adherents to refrain from voting on the "beer and wine" question might hurt the soldiers' proposition. It was suggested the policy would operate to keep the drys from voting on any of the questions on the little ballot.To approve the bond issue that will allow the state to pay the bonus a majority of all who cast their electoral vote upon the total legislative vote, is required. In other words, a voter who fails to vote for the bonus, in effectively votes against it. It is for this reason the soldiers' friends fear the effect of the drys' policy.

Urge Bonus Approval.

In behalf of approval of the bonus, these statements were issued last night:Col. Frank R. Schwengel, chairman of the Illinois Bonus Committee of the American Legion—Illinois the second richest state in the union, cannot afford to be the first to vote down the bonus, and we are confident that an overwhelming majority will be cast on the little ballot proposition in favor of the issuance of the $5,000,000 bond issue. The men served their country and state well and it is simply a small way of rewarding the Illinois citizens they will stand by now in the same manner they did while the boys were fighting the Hunns before Paris.Charles W. Schick, Illinois Department

60 MINERS DEAD, OFFICIALS STATE AFTER LONG HUNT

In on a stretcher. Physicians said Craig and all others in the hospital would recover. A number, it was added, owed their lives to prompt treatment given by rescue parties under ground.

Hope for some of the missing men are still alive was based on reports that a brittice had been found, built of old timbers by the miners after the explosion cut off a part of No. 8 heading to the left of the main entry.

Strange Message Found.

"Look behind this wall," had been burned in a smooth place on a timber across an entrance leading to the mine. An experienced miner would take every means to help their rescuers, this startling sentence was taken to mean that the men were still alive.

The rescuers, comprising four crews of five men each, are under the supervision of J. J. Bourquin, head of the United States Bureau of mines. They were rushed here in a special train.

Behind the brittice, which was broken down when pure air from above had been pumped in to dispel the gas, the rescuers found four men alive and one dead. The survivors said: "A large number of our companions kept on." The four miners were weak and helpless when found.

A little later the rescuers entered the brittice, made of mine cars, and bearing the legend, burned on with a miner's lamp. "There are twenty-nine men behind this." The air was so bad here that "Sally," the bureau's pet canary bird, used in testing the air, died.

Wait for Pure Air.

"It was a shame," said one of the crew. "We could have saved her if we had returned to the good air. But where the lives of miners are concerned I guess Sally would O. K. out act in going ahead."

It was decided to wait for pure air before breaking through this bulkhead. At another point in the mine a heavy fall of slate from the roof had completely closed the entrance. Back of it, rescuers detected, they heard voices, and they attacked it vigorously in the hope of finding some of the entombed men alive, although they received no answer to repeated calls.

"There are dead miners strewn all along the entries down there," said Bourquin, as he came from the shaft to the surface.

Hope for Survivors.

"We're doing nothing to bring out the dead," he continued. "We only stopped with them long enough to see that the spark of life had fled and then moved on in search of the living. Quite a bit of mine remains to be explored, but if there are any more live men in there it won't take us long to get to them."

Earlier tonight firemen and electricians strung wires and placed lights at advantageous points so the work might go on through the night.

Mingling in the crowd were the miners, comprising four crews of five men each, under the supervision of J. J. Bourquin, head of the United States Bureau of mines. They were rushed here in a special train.

VALENTINO OUT; FRENCH ACTOR, 30, TAKES HIS ROLES

New York, Nov. 8.—[Special]—Cyrille De Rochefort, 30, a Frenchman, is to take the leading part in the Famous Players-Lasky picture, "A Spanish Cavalier," a part originally assigned to Rodolf Valentino. The French actor will arrive Saturday.

Valentino is definitely "out" as a Famous Player star. He voluntarily left the organization a month ago. The company now has asked for an injunction to prevent his appearance in other pictures. This injunction will be heard in the Appellate division of the Supreme court in two weeks.

The Famous Players-Lasky corporation will attempt to transfer to De Rochefort the popularity attained by Valentino.

The Driving Comfort of Cadillac Enclosed Cars

The purchaser of an enclosed car sometimes thinks too exclusively in terms of passenger comfort—of interior luxuries combined with protection from dust, rain and cold.

He should insist with no less emphasis upon driver comfort—upon ease of operation, dependability of performance, freedom from nerve strain, and a sense of security that is, for the driver, perhaps the most fundamental comfort of all.

He will find the realization of this ideal in Cadillac enclosed cars. Not merely in the instant flow of power at his command, in range of speed from crawl to sprint, in starting ease and braking control, has the driver been considered; but in seating comfort, line of vision, steering wheel angle, elbow and leg room, dashboard arrangement—and in an entire absence of those little irritating faults of design that are such handicaps to the driver in bad weather or difficult traffic situations.

Enclosed car comfort, to Cadillac engineers and designers, has no superficial reference to cushions and springs, but goes far deeper. It is the result of harmonious development of a multitude of parts that function perfectly as a whole.

They'll want pancakes oftener!

Good maple syrup makes pancakes taste so much finer! But perhaps you have been disappointed so many times in the weak maple flavor of maple-flavored syrups that you haven't felt like making pancakes any more.

If you really don't want to make them ever again, then you hadn't better try Mayflower Syrup. But, if you do like to give your family a treat, then try it.
Why shouldn't Mayflower Syrup have an exceptionally fine maple flavor? It is made right in the Vermont Maple district, of the most full flavored maple, by native Vermonters. When the refined granulated sugar is added to make it more syrupy, great care is taken to keep the rich maple flavor.

In pints and quarts Mayflower Syrup is put up in both cans and bottles. The larger sizes, half-gallons, gallons and five gallons, in cans only. You'll find that it is very moderate in price, especially when you realize that a pint is considerably more than a pound. The gallon can contains a full eleven pounds. To be sure of getting full measure, insist on Mayflower.

HONOR OR ILLICIT LOVE HELD CRISIS IN HAVRE KILLING

BY EDWARD DOHERTY.

Havre, Mont., Nov. 6.—(Special)—Havre is still discussing the Rev. Leonard J. Christler, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church and "the Bishop of All Outdoors," and Mrs. Margaret Carleton and the tragedy that ended their lives. And those citizens closest to the bishop's life have arrived at a definite theory as to the motive for the murder and suicide.

For four years the Rev. Mr. Christler has been in his position; to Mrs. Carleton. There were other women, too, but Mrs. Carleton seemed to have a special grip on his heart, a special influence on his actions.

He would take his wife into the business section; say his old friends park her in a store, a restaurant, an office, or any other place, tell her to wait ten minutes for him, and be gone for hours calling on Mrs. Carleton.

Wife a Patient Walter.

At such time Mrs. Christler would sit very still, her hands folded placidly in front of her, her face expressionless, her composure.

A few women they say, a remarkable woman. There are many who declared Mrs. Christler once stepped into the room in a local hotel where her reverend husband and Mrs. Carleton were resting, and that the "bishop" choked her and threw her out.

How the Rev. Mr. Christler made a living and supported his wife and took Mrs. Carleton on numerous pilgrimages has been more or less of a mystery. The church paid him only one month's salary this year.

Mrs. Christler's father died in the east a few months ago, and it is declared he left his entire fortune to his daughter. Now the theory of Christler's friend and his wife is that it was that Christler had come to a crisis. Either he must give up his wife, and her fortune, his church, his reputation as a man of God, and a respectable citizen, his friends and everything else that was his; or he must give up Mrs. Carleton.

Fate had dealt him a hand that required considerable study. He chose to discard the love of Mrs. Carleton and he drew a bullet.

He would like to know exactly what was said in the Christler home a week ago last Friday morning, just before the killing. Mrs. Christler has revealed only one sentence uttered by the woman who came to kill. "You are nothing in your husband's life."

Lost—and Broke Up Game.

But Havre has its own opinion of that interview. It believes Mrs. Carleton was there for a showdown, and when the cards were on the table and she had looked in the discards she ended the game forever.

She used a .38 caliber revolver. The weapon she had carried for years in a holster strapped to her right side—for she was left handed—was found in her hotel room, where her 12 year old daughter lay dead.

It was a .38 caliber.

Why did she use the bigger gun? And where did she get it? Chief of Police Moran doesn't expect an answer to the first question, but he will never be contented, he says, until the answer to the other has been found.

"Because," he explained, "that is all there is left to know."

5 MEN, MOTHER AND GIRL TAKEN IN 2 DRUG RAIDS

Allege "Dope" Came from Camp Grant.

While early trials for forty-three violators of anti-narcotic laws were being set yesterday by Federal Judge James L. Wilkerson, government agents opened fire on a native against dope trafficking, resulting in the arrest of members of two alleged rings of dope peddlers and discover that narcotics have been smuggled out of Camp Grant and other military areas by use of medical belts.

Investigation will be launched at Camp Grant to ascertain if collusion exists among army attachés and dope runners.

Activities of dope peddlers at the camp were disclosed with the arrest yesterday of Mrs. Anna Goldman, wife of the proprietor of an army goods store, Rosalie, and her son, Eddie Lichten, and Edward Buch, the Goldman chauffeur, after police had found eighteen bottles of morphine and eighteen hypodermic needles in their automobile.

When arraigned before United States Commissioner James R. Glass, Lillian Goldman explained to police that the drugs by which they had been found in medical belts purchased by her father from authorities at Camp Grant. Frank Koska, custodian of the post, verified the statement that the belts had been sold to Goldman, but said he did not believe any of them contained narcotics.

Four men who are suspected of having knowledge of dope sales to inmates of the county jail were arrested simultaneously with the Goldmans. One was held in bonds of $3,000.

The first trials of violators of the anti-narcotic act are scheduled for Saturday, according to the calendar arranged yesterday by Judge Wilkerson.

Social and Civic Interest directed toward the OPERA

LIKE every metropolis the world over, Chicago counts Opera as its supreme social and artistic expression. This year the Opera will be more brilliant, more successful even than in previous seasons. The Chicago Civic Opera Company has provided the finest artists the world affords, justified by Chicago's demand for nothing less than the best.

Much of the success of any Opera, however, depends on the support of its audience — on the enthusiasm with which it enters into the spirit of the Opera season — to which the artists themselves are quick to respond. The brilliance of evening toilettes filling the great Auditorium — beautiful gowns, gleaming jewels, rich furs and resplendent color — casts over the occasion a magnificence and glamour inseparable from tradition and romance, and all that makes of it the gorgeous spectacle which "Grand Opera" has come to imply.

On next Monday night the season opens with Verdi's incomparable "Aida." And a representative Chicago audience will prove that Chicago people are no less insistent on perfection in dress than in any other artistic expression.

Our Apparel Sections have specialized on Clothes for the Opera. Gowns and Wraps and all of their Accessories will be found in collections worthy of this most important formal opening of the social season.

Costumes the Cynosure of First-night Audience

"WHO sat where and what she wore on Monday night" is going to include mention of many of the lovely Gowns and Wraps from our Apparel Sections. The artist designers in our designing and dressmaking service know what Paris is thinking about fashions practically as soon as Paris herself. While translating the very latest nuances of style into creations from this section, they, at the same time, imbue them with a personality entirely individual to the wearer. The most charming models, fabrics and designs now ready for Opera Wraps and Gowns will result in many exquisite contributions to the brilliant assembly of the Opera promenade.

Women's and Misses' Custom Apparel, Ninth Floor, South, State

Wraps of rich velvets and metal cloth, laden with lovely furs, stir the imagination to scenes of royal entourage. Many of them are imports, bearing the potent names of Paul Poiret, Worth, Bernard, Miller Soeurs and others. Their reproductions are no less lovely. Many charming models, too, are without fur, some other delightful feature substituting it as trimming. Prices, beginning with models without fur, from $110 up.

Women's Wraps and Coats, Sixth Floor, North, Wabash

Gowns. The mode has chosen to be majestic this season. Trailing draperies, opulent fabrics, heavy jeweled trimmings give it a courtliness and beauty associated with the periods of unusual splendor in dress. Velvets, never so lovely in color nor so delicate in texture, are rivaled only by resplendent metal cloths, brocades and delicate laces. Fortunately our Costume Room, as well as our Misses' Section, is so well prepared for the Opera season that all types of Gowns will be found from the simplest and daintiest frocks for the debutante to the most elaborate models for the more mature woman.

Women's Costume Room, Sixth Floor, South, Wabash · Misses' Frocks, Sixth Floor, North, State

Furs — with not only their graciousness and beauty to win them fashion's undying devotion, but every whim of a capricious mode interpreted into the deep, rich folds of Wraps, Capes and Scarfs. White Furs are especially favored, ermine and white fox, making perfect setting for exquisite gowns and giving added beauty to fair faces.

Like Lingering Music

THE fragrance of a rare Perfume, as it lingers with you, may be as haunting as a melodic strain. And it may also call up definite associations.

The finest French Perfumes are handsomely bottled and boxed, displaying names of much romance, such as Narcisse Noir, Déja le Printemps, l'Horizon, Mirasol, and Kadidia (one of Paris' favorites, by the way).

First Floor, North, State

Jewels Find This Their Realm

THE world of Opera and the world of fashion, each in its imini-table way, accord high honor to the appreciation of Jewels. The Pearls worn by Melisande, the rubies of Tosca, the jewel-encrusted gown of Juliet, find their brilliance and color echoed many times over in the audience.

Through many years of experience in dealing with Precious Stones and Pearls, this Store is ready to offer skilled assistance in the selection or remounting of such gems, and presents now a rare collection of Jewels.

Slippers of Slender Grace

— and exquisite smartness are of gold and silver cloth — some plain, and many others brocaded. Dainty strapped Slippers and Pumps with picturesque patterns, high and pointed, are available in gold and silver cloth, as well as black and white satin. The latter may be tinted to match your gown.

Fourth Floor, South, State

Buckles ·

— play no small part in the costume's effect. Scintillating rhinestone Buckles mounted on pleatings of soft silver, lace are used on silver Slippers. Opera pumps of satin wear Buckles of colored rhinestones which are marvels of brilliancy. Other rhinestone Buckles, in cunningly wrought designs, are shown for every type of Slipper.

Fifth Floor, Middle, Wabash

Fabrics of Rich Beauty

FABRICS which, in their harmony and color of weave, suggest the brilliancy and rhythm of modern music, are fitting materials for the interpretation of the formal mode. Gleaming Gold and Silver Cloth are used extensively for entire gowns. Glowing Velvets, both plain and brocaded, and delicate Chiffons are among the Fabrics which, fashioned into costumes, best express the dignity and splendor of Opera.

Second Floor, South, State

Imported Flowers Trim Many Gowns

A HANDSOME Flower of warmly tinted velvet, ora graceful cluster of metal cloth grapes is an effective foil for the simple elegance and charm of velvet and chiffon frocks. Girlands of wondrously wrought beads, of ostrich and flowers, and ornaments of flowers with crystalline pendants transform many a costume.

Address Voice of the People,

MORE WALKING AND MORE
BUSES.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—I am pleased to consider two of the editorials appearing in this month, one admiring citizens to do more walking in the areas and less riding around in their cars. The later editorial takes a stand for the use of motor busses on the south side boulevards, and the benefit of the masses, who would obtain some public transportation on the numerous boulevards of the side. I can't understand the attitude of the park commissioners keeping these motor busses from the city drives. The motor busses on north side drives have been popular well patronized for several years, have had to fight against the interests of the boulevards there to maintain franchise.

I think it is a great display of selfishness in this city that is manifest now in cluttering up of the loop streets and outskirts with so many nonresidential automobiles, which carry relatively few people. C. E. W.

KEEP YOUR INCOME TAX RECEIPTS.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—You would doubtless serve many of your readers by investigating the reason or motive for the increasing listing of delinquent non-income taxpayers by the collector's office in Chicago. I personally received two of such notices and have paid my tax a second time but unfortunately found my receipts were paid.

Now of others who, having paid their tax and on receiving such a notice, were unable to make the payment, would have paid again had I not been of my experience that in the collector's office would all taxpayers file their receipts. C. A. BPFPA.

INCOME TAX CONTRASTS.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—I have been in sync with the editorials published in this month relative to the decision of the internal revenue department at Washington relieving the experts from income tax on some $900 they took out of the city treasury. This decision is based on the ridiculous assumption that these men were employed by the city.

Another of the kindly way in which the internal revenue department deals with ordinary private citizens is that it might interest you to know that I received a peremptory notice this morning that if I did not pay a penalty of $10 and the balance of my income tax for 1921—the last quarter—or before Nov. 10 collection would be made upon me and my property. Making no protest, I paid the amount committed. I was informed that payment due Sept. 15 was two days late and consequently I was subject to a fine, and also collection of the tax due at the end of the month. W. W. K. S.

CHARGE PLOT TO COVER UP SLAYER OF HALL, SINGER

Will Ask Indictment of Man and Woman.

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Deputy Attorney General Wilbur A. Mott is investigating stories of a plot to obstruct justice in the Hall-Mills murder case and to protect the murderers of the clergymen and choir singer from prosecution. He may take steps against persons who may be accused as accessories after the fact, on the ground of covering evidence, and attempting to withhold information from the authorities.

Such action by the special prosecutor, it was learned tonight, may follow his contemplated request upon the Somerset county grand jury for the indictment of "the woman" whom he said was present when the murder was committed, and of the actual murderer, who either may be named in the indictment or referred to merely as "John Doe."

Delayed Autopsy Blamed.

County officials have attributed most of the criticism of their handling of the case before they were superseded by Mr. Mott to the failure of Physician William H. Long of Somerset county to hold an autopsy and the failure to mention that Mrs. Eleanor Mills, then 16, had been cut until the delayed autopsy was held weeks after the crime.

Dr. Long was quoted in a New Brunswick newspaper today as saying he had been told by a high official in the case not to make any mention of the woman's throat having been cut, but he denied tonight to other reporters that he had made any such statement. He denied, however, that he had mentioned an injury to the woman's throat in his official report to Prosecutor Beekman a few days after the murder, although the prosecuting authorities of both counties previously had declared Long never had mentioned her throat being cut.

Who Cut Singer's Throat?

Who cut the woman's throat, and why, is still an unsolved mystery, on which the whole later trend of the investigation has centered. It is felt at night that the authorities are convinced a woman whose indictment they will ask cut the choir singer's throat after her male companion had shot and killed both the rector and the singer.

They admit, however, that they have no information that would prove this.

When the press presented its theory, it is learned, it will call Mrs. A. C. Fraley, who lives near the scene of the murder, to testify in corroboration of Mrs. Gibson's "eyewitness" story.

communicated with Mrs. Coffey. Wilmette police were notified.

They wired the money to "Oliver," who was arrested yesterday by Motorcyle Policeman Pinkey of South Milwaukee.

"Well, they've got us. That's just like dad," was the boy's comment on his arrest.

Questions of the young couple brought out the fact that they had been riding in the car all Sunday night. On several occasions the car became stalled, and it took Coffey many hours to start it. He also purchased gasoline until he was out of funds and sent the telegram to his chum. He was getting hungry and so was Bernice.

Glad to Get Home.

They remained at South Milwaukee police headquarters until last night, when two officers from Wilmette arrived to return them to their parents. They seemed glad to be going back home. They ate heartily at the police station while awaiting the arrival of the Wilmette officials.

"My dad seems to know what he wants and always gets his way," said the young Lochman, as he bade the South Milwaukee police chief farewell.

Mr. Cook maintains that his daughter must have been abducted, saying "Bernice would never run off alone."

No Comment by Coffey.

Mr. Coffey refused to comment on his son's adventure in modernism.

Principal J. R. Harper of the Wilmette grammar school said that Mrs. Bernice was "just an average girl." Characterizing the escapade as "one of the most serious things that has ever happened in the school," he promised a thorough investigation.

Bernice's teacher says that she was a pretty child, well developed for her age, a fair student, but with her "mind on other things."

connection between this runaway and the disappearance during the last few months of five boys from Wilmette. The boys ran away alone and have all returned to their homes.

Wilmette mothers are shocked at the affair, which many believe was based on that of the Lafayette contract marriages.

It is expected that the women's clubs and Parent-Teachers' associations in the town will start an investigation of the general situation in Wilmette.

With the eyes of parenthood focused on the girls, Principal J. R. Harper, D. Owen, principal of the Chicago Normal school, said yesterday that "Home making is both a man's and a woman's job. The greatest work of today is that of the American home."

"The home life has more to do with a child's desires and activities than any other factor can enter into life. The child's first character is formed there."

CITIZENS ASKED TO RAISE MONEY FOR SCHOOL QUIZ

Upon the formal decision by Attorney General Brundage yesterday to carry on the school graft inquiry it was announced that funds must be raised to make the fight effective. This was announced after a conference between Mr. Brundage and Judge Michael L. McKinley.

Public spirited citizens and civic clubs and business men may be asked to dig deep into their pockets if they wish the investigation to be thorough and complete. meeting in the attorney general's office.

Point to Need of Haste.

State's Attorney Crowe's letter asking to be relieved of further handling of the investigation and of the prosecution to allow him to do it imperative that the attorney general take up the task or allow the inquiry to die a premature death, the officials agreed.

Judge McKinley explained that as the grand jury has voted to continue scanning all school board deals and so informed him, expressing the opinion that there was much evidence of graft which he uncovered, he had decided to place Mr. Brundage, the chief law officer of the state, in charge.

He called attention to the fact that many important witnesses, including Fred Lundin, had evaded process and insisting that no persons guilty of looting the school treasury be allowed to escape justice.

The county board is without authority to appropriate money to have lawyers who would be classed as special assistant attorneys general, the officials declared, that being the duty of the legislature, which is not now in session. Gov. Small at the last session and Judge McKinley preceded the dage's office of more than $700,000, leaving the attorney general office financially crippled.

SCHOOL BOARD TO BEHEAD 200 CITY HALL 'PETS'

Left to the Public.

"It seems to be up to the public," Judge McKinley and Mr. Brundage joined in saying. "If the public wants this school investigation it may have to foot the bills."

"I am not seeking this job," Mr. Brundage declared, "but neither will I shirk my duty."

The investigation will back the attorney general to the utmost. Roger Sherman, its president, stated.

Mr. Brundage said entire new machinery of the law must be created to enable him to proceed. Besides lawyers, auditors, investigators, investigators and special deputy sheriffs are needed.

Mrs. Pauline Struwling, vice president of the board of education, yesterday gave bonds of $10,000 pending her trial on a charge of malfeasance in office.

Charles W. Jacobs and his wife, Gertrude, scheduled their $32,000 home at 6348 Winthrop avenue on the bond.

cohort, against whom indictments have been returned.

In High Dodge.

Information of the "head chopping" went as by radio through the building, 646 South Clark street, yesterday after a statement by Trustee Hart Hanson, in which he said that action on the discharges would be taken in two weeks by the finance committee.

He is chairman of this committee and is known to have support in his economy measures of more than half the board. Many of the 200 who are to go have desks in the building. Their indignation ran high.

Into this excitement came an order from President Coolidge, Dec. 1, suspending John A. Campbell, who was made "examiner of printing" because of his knowledge of the city hall, according to Trustee J. Lewis Coast, and who now is charged with diverting printing contracts of the board into the hands of Milton Severinghaus, nephew of the trustee, and other favored bidders.

Tightens Up on Expenditures.

The finance committee refused to appropriate money to aid a board attorney, Miss Cora A. Shaw, who was reported to be dangerously ill at her home in Oakley boulevard. For three months she has served the board. For three months she has been entirely dependent upon her salary, which was stopped after she became ill, it was said.

Attorney Ralph W. Conder, appearing for the aid, pointed out that the board can, in its discretion, make provision for an employee in such distress.

In making the budget for 1923, it was said that at least $2,000,000 "unnecessary" expenditures of the last two or three years will be eliminated. The money saved will be invested in new school buildings.

School Pupils Dismissed as Fire Sweeps Nearby Flats

Flames which damaged a four story apartment building at 2900 West Jackson boulevard yesterday afternoon, causing damage estimated at $20,000, threatened to spread to the Calhoun school across the street, where 1,200 pupils were attending classes. As the flames reached the top floor and roof of the apartment the children were dismissed in fire drill.

E. H. GARY DENIES PITTSBURGH PLUS HARMS RIVALS

BY GRAFFON WILCOX

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—[Special]—E. H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, denied today before the federal trade commission in the basic price inquiry that the corporation ever authorized the use of the Pittsburgh base or any other rule of trade with a view to seeking advantage over its competitors. The corporation, he declared, never had resorted to unfair practices.

"If our corporation ever had adopted such a policy," Mr. Gary declared, "we would not have been allowed to live by the Supreme court, and we ought not."

Reasons for Midwest Plants.

The steel industry, the corporation chairman asserted, never would have established plants at Chicago, Duluth, and other midwest locations had it not been for the corporation basing its cost inquiry that this base was an element of stability for both producers and consumers.

The "Pittsburgh plus" is the Pittsburgh price of steel products, plus the freight from Pittsburgh.

Replies to questions by K. E. Steinbauer, of counsel for the commission, as to the specific bases on which the cost of production at the Gary, Ind., and the Pittsburgh mills, Mr. Gary said a number of conditions subject to changes were involved. He said Pittsburgh could probably take care of itself at the present time and possibly produce at a lower cost than Gary.

Mr. Gary's theory, he explained, that in his opinion the Pittsburgh base could operate only when there was an equality as between supply and demand, or when the demand was greater than the supply. When business is merely theoretical.

Won't Tip Off "Trade Scouts".

Responding to an inquiry as to the difficulties encountered by the federal trade commission in obtaining information desired from the steel trade, Mr. Gary said he thought neither the commission nor any of the governmental departments have trouble in getting figures expressing the total of any feature of business, but he said they might have difficulty in getting figures which might be of benefit to one side or the other for the prejudice of another competitor.

"You must remember the members of the iron and steel industry have strong competition all the time, and they do not furnish each other the details of the business required, as they might affect competition," he said.

The federal trade commission, think, as a rule, has been able to secure without hindrance and with a good deal of aid figures which are pertinent and which are withheld from general circulation among the iron and steel people."

Firm Withholds Information.

Mr. Steinbauer referred specifically to the Carnegie Steel company, declaring the commission had been unable to get certain information from it, and inquired why.

Mr. Gary said he could not answer this question, but that what was involved, but that it was a fact that the steel corporation reserved the right to pass on questions of policy. He said sometimes a subsidiary company might not know how far reaching the inquiry might be and that it might be the corporation's fault.

"It is not like the trading in anything else," Mr. Gary continued. "The seller of steel and the buyer of steel who has to make his bids and his contracts depends upon what the general market is, and that looks like some place for fixing the price. Take, for instance, the price of wheat quoted on a Chicago base."

"If our corporation ever had adopted such a policy," Mr. Gary declared,

"we would not have been allowed to live by the Supreme court, and we ought not."

Studebaker

It is not necessary to buy a high-priced roadster to get maximum comfort. Comfort is a matter of correct design. Comfort is built into the Studebaker Light-Six.

The seat is placed at just the right angle for relaxation and is provided with big, fat cushions, upholstered in genuine leather. The semi-elliptic springs are long, strong and resilient.

There is ample luggage space under the rear deck—plenty of room for everything you may want to carry.

Vibration, which is so destructive to motor cars, is practically eliminated by the perfect balance of the motor. This is largely due to the fact that the crankshaft and connecting rods are machined on all surfaces, an exclusive Studebaker practice for cars at anywhere near the Light-Six price.

Economy of operation is increased by valves inclined at a 20-degree angle and by the internal hot spot.

This handsome roadster is a quality car throughout. It is sold at $975 only because of complete manufacture, in large volume, in one of the most modern and complete motor car plants in the world.

Middlemen's profits are thus eliminated and the savings are passed on to you.

The Light-Six Roadster well upholds Studebaker's 70-year reputation for dependability and dollar-for-dollar value.

Attractive cow lights. Thief-proof transmission lock. Cow ventilator. Storm curtains opening with the doors. Large plate-glass window in rear curtain. Inside and outside door handles. Upholstered in genuine leather. Ample space under the rear deck for luggage.

Employee Partnership a Big Factor In Efficiency

In its issue of Oct. 1, 1922, the Chicago Tribune says, "In this field (industrial peace) there is much to be hoped for from intelligent effort to induce investment by employees in the industry or business in which they are employed. If the millions that have been lost in ill-advised strikes could have been invested in shares in the enterprise, the workers in many cases would have accomplished the benefits they sought."

The acknowledged efficiency of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is due in no small measure to the fact that every employee of the Company, if he will, may become a partner in the business by taking advantage of the stock-purchase-plan. To the amount of stock subscribed for by the employee, the Company gives one-half, and the employee is allowed to pay in small monthly installments. Thus he has an excellent investment which he can watch and help make more profitable.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) employees are insuring through investment, the present well-being and future security of their families, an end which every man is striving to accomplish. These men and women know that the Company is genuinely interested in furthering their welfare. Their energies, therefore, are released from worry over the future and are turned to increased efficiency that comes with enthusiasm.

Whole-hearted co-operation is essential to the conduct of any business. The management of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) recognizes this fact and believes that no better way to secure this co-operation can be devised than by giving every employee an opportunity to become a partner in the business. The enthusiastic response which the employees have given to this plan proves conclusively that the Company has solved a problem of importance to the Company, the employee, and the public.

There is no idle time nor decreased efficiency due to disputes, discontent, or misunderstandings to be charged into the consumers bills. Every employee of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is delivering full-time and energy to the performance of his task, and this work is to him a pleasure, not a task.

It is submitted that this is another item in that cycle of service which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) renders the public.

25,000 Homes

must be built this year to take care of Chicago's rapidly increasing population. In Chicago at the present time the average is 2,600 families to the square mile. Therefore, 10 square miles of vacant land is needed to accommodate this increase.

Restricted Property

convenient to transportation, stores, schools and churches is becoming scarcer each year. Diminishing supply and increasing demand will send the price of such property skyward.

I Have Subdivided One of the Finest Estates in Beautiful HINSDALE

Only 35 minutes from the Loop, on the C. B. & Q. Ry. This entire subdivision is restricted to Americans only, and no home can be built costing less than $4,000. Every house must be built back 40 feet from the sidewalk. Present ideal conditions will be maintained indefinitely.

This tract, nicely wooded, is located in the most desirable part of Hinsdale, and two homes already built on the property cost over $25,000.00 each. It would be difficult to find property anywhere near Chicago more desirable for investment or homesite.

There is no other property in Hinsdale for sale at anywhere near the price I am asking. Adjoining property is now being offered at nearly three times my price.

FARM LOAN PLAN IN CONSTITUTION IS A NEW POLICY

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

ARTICLE NO. 58.

Transmission of tenant farmers into farm owners is sought by one new section in the proposed new state constitution, on which the election vote on Dec. 12. The proposal permits the state legislature to pass laws putting the state into the farm loan business. But it has been hedged about with such safeguards in the way of popular votes that some leading delegates say the provision means little or nothing.

The section, which would establish a new policy in the basic law of Illinois, says the general assembly may provide for lending money on farm lands. But no such act shall take effect until approved by a majority voting on the question. If such an act is passed and approved by popular vote, the loan shall be amortized in not to exceed thirty-three years and shall be secured by first mortgages or deeds of trust made by those owning, occupying, and cultivating the lands pledged. Reasonable preferences may be given to honorably discharged soldiers and sailors.

Intent of Provision.

The intent of the provision is to give the legislature power to pass a measure similar to the federal farm loan act of 1916.

During the debates it was urged that agriculture is receiving more encouragement from the government than other lines of industry, and that agencies now exist through which a farmer may obtain money on his land, such as the federal land bank and the first joint stock land banks, in addition to the ordinary banks and the regular mortgage brokers.

The present constitution prohibits the state from engaging in the banking business, and forbids it to lend its credit to any corporation, association, or individual. The new draft makes possible—if the legislators and voters so desire—a system of state land loans.

Attitude of Some Delegates.

The attitude of some of the delegates was reflected in a facsimile amendment which Wallace H. Wilson, Chicago delegate, submitted while the question was up, reading:

"The state may also loan to private homes and private businesses upon first mortgages; unless the private homes are sustained and the private businesses are successful, the farmers cannot market their products."

This bit of jocularity was tabled. But from among the several delegates themselves came arguments that if a new state policy is to be introduced, furnishing means of getting public money by way of loans, then the taxpayers should be given full protection by the ballot box method.

Takes Double Referendum.

So, if the legislature should pass loan enactments, it will doubtless be drivers who travel the streets while Chicago sleeps, and keep their eyes open to save lives and property, are adding new laurels to their records constantly.

This particular police force is not paid for police work, yet every member of it is eager to prove his interest in, and usefulness to, the community which he serves at the wheel of a Yellow Cab. A few recent instances will be interesting:

Drivers C. McCarthy, Cab 1721, and John St. Peter, Cab, 81, discovered a fire at 1306 South Michigan Avenue, Oct. 14, at 3 o'clock in the morning. They called the police, broke in the windows and saved seven people who had been overcome by smoke, including a cripple who had to be carried down three flights of stairs.

Driver C. B. Stein, of Flournoy Garage, discovered a fire at 11 p. m., Oct. 16—turned in an alarm, then rescued Mrs. Marshall and her baby and Mrs. Curtain.

Driver Edward Swift, Evanston Garage, on the night of Oct. 18, while returning from the Evanston Golf Club, discovered a farmhouse afire. He called the Niles Center Fire Department and then rescued the family. In helping the fire department, he fell into a well and narrowly escaped drowning.

Driver William Sullivan, 21st Street Garage, at 4:30 on the morning of Oct. 18, saw a negro bandit holding up Driver Bloom, Tenth Street Garage, on State Street near 25th. He seized a tire-wrench and pretending it was a revolver, disarmed the bandit and handed him over to a policeman.

In hours of distress and great emergency, drivers have repeatedly rendered invaluable aid. They are called for all sorts of errands and their willingness to respond has made many a staunch friend for Yellow Cab.

FASCISTI GIVE UP AMUSEMENT, GEMS, AND GOLD

(Copyright: 1922: By the New York Times.)
ROME, Nov. 6.—As an example of the new spirit which the Fascisti have succeeded in fusing in the country may be cited an oath which has been taken voluntarily by all Fascisti in Piacenza. It reads:

"By the blood of our 2,000 martyrs whom we invoke as witnesses and judges of our actions, we, the black shirts of Piacenza province, swear that for one year,

"First, we will not wear on our persons or keep in our houses anything made of gold, silver, or precious metals or stones.

"Second, we claim for ourselves the privilege of working ardently without pay for the good of our country.

"Third, we renounce all worldly amusements which are not expressions of civic joy for our nation's progress.

"Fourth, we will give all superfluous ornaments for a fund for supporting enterprises having goodness, civilization, beauty, and improvement as their object."

The example of the Piacenza Fascisti is being imitated all over Italy.

Clash with Nationalists.

ROME, Nov. 6.—[By the Associated Press.]—Fascisti and Nationalists clashed today at Taranto, in southeastern Italy, over questions of local politics. In the fight which ensued seven were killed and numbers were wounded, casualties being suffered by both sides.

Count Sforza, Italian ambassador to France, was the object of a hostile demonstration by Fascisti when he arrived at Bussolengo, in the province of Turin, on the Italian frontier, while returning to Rome for a conference with the new premier, Mussolini. The Fascisti detached the carriage in which the count was riding from the train, but carabinieri rushed in and rescued him.

Count Sforza thereupon continued his journey, and upon his arrival here was received by the premier, with whom he had a long conversation.

COURT DECIDES MINIMUM WAGE LAW NOT VALID

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Property right in labor was recognized today when the minimum wage law for the District of Columbia was declared unconstitutional by the Court of Appeals of the district. The opinion was by Justice Josiah A. Van Orsdel.

The case decided was that of the Children's hospital, which sought to restrain the minimum wage board from enforcing an order requiring it to pay its women employees not less than $15.50 a week, or $71.50 a month.

Justice Van Orsdel in his ruling held that "no greater calamity could befall the wage earners of this country than to have the legislative power to fix wages upheld."

Now ways to combat it

To meet this situation, dental science sought for film combatants. Two effective methods were discovered. One acts to curdle metals, the other to film. The other method was to polish the teeth so film less easily adheres.

Pepsodent also polishes the teeth so film less easily adheres.

Old effects reversed

Pepsodent also multiplies the starch digestants in the saliva. That is there to digest starch deposits which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to neutralize mouth acids which cause tooth decay. Every use gives manifold protection against these great tooth-protecting agents in the mouth.

Old-type tooth pastes, based on soap and chalk, brought just opposite effects. They weakened Nature. That is why those principles were changed.

German Magnate Refuses to Under Socialist Rule

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
(Associated Press—Chicago Tribune.)

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—It is stated that Hugo Stinnes and several other big industrial leaders have conferred with the reparations commission and indicated clearly that they were determined not to co-operate with the present government, which they contend is too conservative. Hert Stinnes, with regard to the settlement of the reparations commission, indicated there will be no serious efforts from Germany with regard to the settlement of the reparations problem unless a formation of a conservative government in which his business will have the lead. Such a government, Herr Stinnes pointed out to Sir John Bradbury and Sir Herbert, when in power, will offer a comprehensive economic and financial plan which will satisfy everybody and lay the foundation for new allied and German relations.

Wirth Government Shaky.

As a result of the unfavorable program of the recent elections, the position of the Wirth government is now becoming untenable. A cabinet crisis marking Chancellor Wirth's end is looked for with the reconvening of the Reichstag next week.

In circles close to the reparations commission, where disappointment was expressed over Dr. Wirth's failure to offer adequate suggestions for the stabilization of the mark and the rehabilitation of German finances, this disappointment, however, was tempered by the realization that Dr. Wirth was being deliberately sabotaged by industry and big business headed by Hugo Stinnes, who is said to be determined to provoke the downfall of the government.

Rejects German Plan.

The reparations commission tonight rejected Germany's proposals for the stabilization of the mark. In a sharp letter addressed to Chancellor Wirth and signed by all the members the commission rejected Germany's proposal for a 500,000,000 gold marks ($12,000,000) loan, saying it was not the reparations commission's but Germany's business to seek a loan for Germany and that the reparations commission could not assume the responsibility for such a loan, which would be implied if the reparations

OBREGON ORDERS REVISION OF NEW OIL RIGHTS BILL

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

Mexico City, Nov. 6.—The proposed bill for reform of articles of the constitution relating to control of oil lands, which was to have been presented to congress this week, was rejected by President Obregon today. He was advised that the bill emphasized too strongly the nation's proprietorship of oil deposits, to the exclusion of the rights of owners of oil bearing properties.

It was stated semi-officially that the committee on constitutional reforms is already drafting a new bill, which will provide government control of all oil lands.

An attorney for an oil company told THE TRIBUNE today that the proposed legislation is unsatisfactory to oil companies operating in Mexico.

A BANKER who has driven his Rolls-Royce 180,000 miles was asked by an acquaintance when he intended to purchase a new one. . . . "I expect my present Rolls to last as long as I live," was his reply. "Mechanically it is as good as it ever was, although it has seen eleven years of service. With the new body that I have put on it, it is as modern in appearance as any car on the street." This man bought his Rolls-Royce when he was thirty-eight years old. Long after he is fifty it will still be serving him with distinction. . . . The man to whom he made the remarks quoted here had owned a dozen different motor cars. The facts about the banker's Rolls-Royce so amazed him that he investigated to find out whether such service was the exception or the rule. . . . The outcome was that he bought a Rolls-Royce himself. To the uninitiated, Rolls-Royce may bring only the thought of superlative luxury—but for its owners it combines the delight of such perfection with the satisfaction of economy.

Music That Is Ever New

Such things as "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," Handel's "He Shall Feed His Flock," and the aria from Carmen, "Love is like a Wood Bird," afford constant pleasure. There is a freshness and charm in them that endear them to all. They will live forever. Each re-hearing of them awakens new enthusiasm. And when they are sung for you by the greatest artists, whenever you wish, they become priceless possessions. All the color and beauty of the song, the sympathetic voice of the singer, are revivified for your delight.

TILDEN TO LOSE JOINT ON FINGER OF TENNIS HAND

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 6.—William T. Tilden II, of Philadelphia, national tennis champion, will lose his first joint of the middle finger of his right hand, according to Dr. W. H. Swartley, his physician at the Germantown hospital.

Dr. Swartley said today that he did not expect the infected finger to stiffen and interfere with Tilden's playing ability. The first joint has become gangrenous and will drop off, he added.

Tilden's finger was scratched in a recent tennis match when he collided with a wire backstop while chasing a line drive. He paid little attention to the injury until the finger became infected.

Losing the upper end of the finger from the distal joint may not put an end to the tennis star's career, according to his doctor. Tilden can now get a little motion in the lower end of the infected finger and with time may be able to revolutionize his grip on the racquet when he returns to the court.

"I may be handicapped next season, but I will be able to play tennis, and intend to play again," Tilden said today. Propped up in bed by pillows, his injured finger resting on a hot water bottle, he took the ultimatum that may end his tennis career with a cheer.

Will Have to Get New Grip.

"Unquestionably I will have to revolutionize my grip next season, but I will be playing tennis," he declared. "My arm will be stiff and my hand unaccustomed to the scratch, but with practice I believe I will be able to overcome the handicap. I intend to get on the courts just as soon as I am able."

WORLD NET BODY WILL ACT UPON ZONE SYSTEM

New York, Nov. 6.—The proposal to divide competition for the Davis cup into two geographical zones, American and European, will be acted upon at an international tennis conference to be held in London Dec. 20, it was announced tonight.

The conference was called by the United States Lawn Tennis federation to consider general revision of Davis cup regulations. It will be followed by a second conference under auspices of the International Lawn Tennis federation, to discuss playing rules and adopt a new international code.

At least ten nations will be represented at the London conferences, which are expected to have the most far-reaching effect upon tennis of any ever held. The ten nations are the United States, England, France, Spain, Roumania, Canada, Australasia, South Africa, India, and Denmark.

Approved at Melbourne.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 6.—The Melbourne Herald says the suggestion advanced in the United States that a "zone system" should be adopted hereafter in competition for the Davis cup, the international lawn tennis trophy, has met with approval from the local tennis players. Gerald L. Patterson, captain of Australia's 1922 Davis cup team, is quoted as declaring he has no doubt the system will be advanced to '75.

HOW ORDINARY POULTRY BECOME KNOWN.

Poultry show season will soon be here. Not all poultry keepers show their birds with the idea of winning blue ribbons. The show room, to the breeder of good fowl, corresponds to the big show windows in a department store.

Pick out a few good ones this fall, groom, wash, and train them for a few weeks, and go to the winter shows with them. It creates a new interest in the breeding of good birds, even if you do not color them with a long string of blue ribbons.

Birds with dark colored plumage, particularly the black breeds, are easily prepared for the show room. About all that is necessary is to wash their shanks, brighten up their comb, and train them so they can be easily appetite.

CHICAGO GOLFERS GIVE KENTUCK A NEW SIGHT

BOWLS FOR 208 AVERAGE

By JOE DAVIS.

Several of the Chicago golfers, who competed in the first annual tournament of the Blue Grass Country Club at Cave City, Ky., returned yesterday, having had some novel experiences in launching the game in that locality.

An exhibition game staged the opening day drew many of the old settlers from a radius of fifty miles. Loading their families into wagons, buggies, and buckboards, they flock to see the new fangled game for the first time.

A young army of keen eyed boys, tall boys and little girls, were at their first try at the caddying. There were enough boys for some players to have two caddies, and they needed them. Each foursome had a gallery and the comments of the natives afforded the players much fun.

Build Course in Record Time.

Peter N. Jans, secretary of the new Playmore Golf club, escorted a party of golfers over the course Sunday. Mr. Jans claims that the course, designed by George O'Neill and constructed by Joe Roseman and Jack Croke, with the assistance of himself, was built in shorter time than any course in the country. Work was begun Sept. 12 and last Saturday night eighteen holes were completed.

Work was done in nine days, the actual working time was forty-four days.

During this period, 3,298 trees were cut down and their stumps dynamited. The full course will measure 6,855 yards. The price per year for membership is $25 until Dec. 1, after which it will be advanced to $30. The fee for women is now $35, and this will be advanced to $75.

Two Hundred in Butterfield Club.

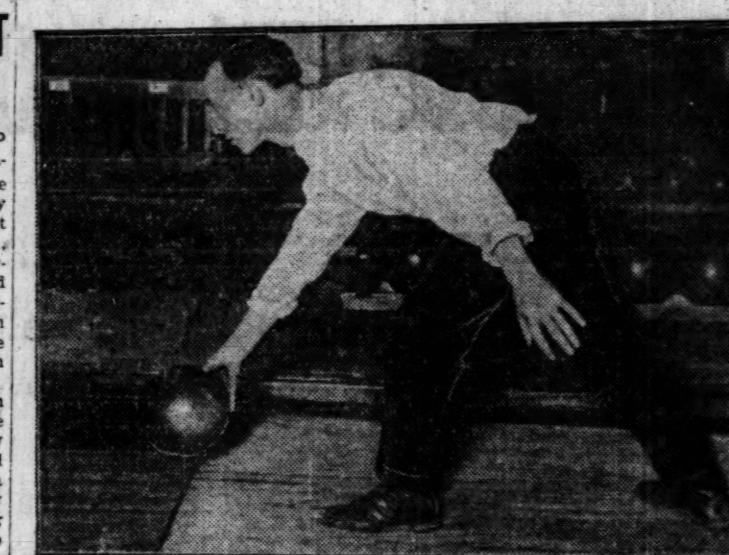

Work on the clubhouse of the Butterfield Club was progressing satisfactorily, part of the roof being done. Grass on the course made wonderful progress through the last few weeks. The membership is now 200 and the initiation fee shortly will be raised to $750.

REG FARDON: The new fourth course at Olympia is located north of the clubhouse, not south, as stated. (Penalty—Loss of a shot.)

George Hack Jr. and A. K. O. Cochran defeated V. U. Fischer and William Vance, 2 and 1, in a match at Lincoln park Sunday evening. Vance, a 1920 amateur, had set a record of 67 at Edsbrook, the day before.

A. T. Packard of the Evening Post won the golf championship of the Chicago Press golf club, which carries with it a championship cup presented by the Chicago Daily News. Mr. Packard defeated E. Hartigan of the American, 8 and 2, in the final of Oak Country club.

Linden Park golf club members are proud of the Linden Park course as a lot of golf. George E. H. Hambleton, active member, said that the score of 55 made by Professional Frank Murphy last week was made over temporary greens, and does not count as a regular course record of 36. Barry Vollmer had a score of 33 over the temporary greens.

HANK MARINO.

Marino, known in the bowling game as the Barber of Seville, is one of Chicago's best pin setters. With Dominick De Vito, another bowling crack, he is representing Chicago in a forty-two game match with Jimmy Smith and "Doctor" Ehlike of Milwaukee. The match is only half through, the final local block of seven games yesterday sending the Chicago team into the lead by 79 pins, due to the great work of Marino, who totaled 1,462 pins for the seven games, giving him an average of 208 6-7 for the afternoon's work. Marino formerly was bowling instructor at University of Chicago.

JACKSON TAKES CUE GAMES FROM LAYTON

JACOBS BEATS FOSTER IN CHICAGO BILLIARD LEAGUE MATCH, 45-31

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]

Clarence Jackson, representing Detroit Recreation building, today won both his three cushion league billiard games from Champion St. Louis, by the close scores of 50 to 49 and 50 to 48. They were Jackson's first wins of the season.

Kendall of Schaefer's defeated Steffan's on Reading's [42], 44 to 21, in 51 innings. This was a fine score, as Kendall made nothing higher than a 2.

Steffan's high mark was 2.

Helberg [46], on his own table at Schilling's, defeated the veteran Leon Magnus [46], 46 to 42, in a long safety battle which went 100 innings. Helberg had high run of 4, Magnus notched 14.

Two games are carded for tonight.

Hisham played in good form in the afternoon match and led his opponent throughout, winning, 50 to 47. The Cleveland also made high run of 4, but lost, 40 to 50.

Midwest Cage League Holds First Meeting

The Midwest Basketball association held its first meeting of the season last night at 180 West Washington street, where the members chafed over the record of 55 made by Professional Frank Murphy last week, was made over temporary greens, and does not count as a regular course record of 36. Barry Vollmer had a score of 33 over the temporary greens.

Joe Stecher, of body scissors fame and former heavyweight mat champion, is back on the map in an effort to regain his lost laurels. Joe is anxious to have Chicago fans and board of athletic commissioners look him over. Marston will oppose him at the Star and Garter theater Friday night.

In the three cushion tournaments at the Kenwood room, Ed Collier of Collier's, 18, gained high run of 7. Powell defeated Rogers [27], 35 to 15, in ninety-two innings and 18, in eighty-three innings.

In the local tournament at Munsey's Jack's boulevard room Ed Fisher [50] defeated Sunde [46], 46 to 42, in 94 innings. Sunde has high run of 4. Tonight Maupome will play an exhibition game with Kelly, 50 to 25.

Nesnessmith defeated Jarvis [100], 75 to 55, in the three cushion tournament at Jones [100] plays H. O'Brien [70] tonight.

The Lake Mystery BY MARVIN DANA

'East Is West' Colorfuland Well Acted

Miss Talmadge Fairly Revels in Part.

"EAST IS WEST"
Produced by First National.
Directed by Sidney Franklin.
Presented at the Chicago.

By Mac Timée.

Good morning! Quite a little picture has been made of the play "East Is West." I am of the opinion that in places, Miss Talmadge allows levity to overcome her and burlesques her part too much. But most of the time she is a pretty and appealing little Chinamaness, and in her dictionary, "I am" you are honest, good and true; the trees come about her. Namely, she is white, and so, free to marry her Mr. Billy Benson whom she adores with such fervor.

The opening scenes of the picture show you Ming Toy in her native land, the desolate daughter of a family that contains sixteen sons and no girls. In a rage over an act of hers, her supposed father insists that she shall be sold as a slave on a "love boat."

With the aid of a chivalrous American, Ming Toy makes her escape to the United States in company with an aged Chinaman who has long been her friend.

Over here, because she persists in "making googie eyes" from her friend's balcony, she is about to be given in marriage, when, presto, again her Mr. Billy Benson appears on the scene. He spirits her away to the home of his parents.

Up to this time the love has been principally on Ming Toy's part. Now, however, Mr. Billy Benson becomes exceedingly aware of the charms of the dainty little maiden.

What will he do? But—

—non-honorable father and mother register such disapproval that Ming Toy is about to sacrifice her happiness.

Better that she shall go and marry the man for whom she was intended than to bring sorrow to her Mr. Billy.

Then—see the picture!

Taken as a whole, "East Is West" is a quaint, colorful, well acted and directed screen offering.

You will agree, I'm sure, that the brilliant Miss Talmadge has the gift of her life impersonating Ming Toy.

CLOSEUPS

Sally Compson and her company, who have been making scenes in Honolulu for "The White Flower," have, it is reported, learned the gentle art of surf board riding.

Wallace Reid, before going to Reeds, was to have been seen with Mrs. doctors, as reported by an ambitious reporter to a mountain retreat. Here he was discovered taking mild physical exercise, being massaged by a trainer of pugilists and adhering to a rigid, limited diet. It is said that the favorite can now walk a mile without exhaustion.

With him last night he's given you many pleasant hours. Now get your thoughts wave in his behalf.

An oil field named for Jackie Coogan is said to have brought forth a gusher, starting with an output of 4,000 a day.

Roscoe Arbuckle is said to now be worrying more over paralysis than his hand, which he had drawn from his pocket. It was of about the size of that on which Abernethy's composition had been written. It showed two irregular lines running across it, drawn by pencil.

Glance at this if you please," he directed.

The others did so, but their bewildered expression showed that they were unaccustomed to the sudden disclosure of the revelation concerning the hidden gold. Billy chuckled again in contemplation of their failure to comprehend. Then he brought forth a second sheet and held it aloft for their inspection. In this instance the paper was turned with its greater length horizontal, and the two lines of the other sheet had been joined, so that the one irregular tracing extended over the full page.

David slapped his thigh with violence.

"By the Lord Harry, it's a map!" he cried in glee. "A regular map, Billy, my boy!" His eyes bulged forth until they threatened to jump from their sockets.

Billy shot out a bit further.

"Yes, it's a map," he agreed; and his voice was strangely gentle, as it usually was in his moments of greatest excitement. "It's a map, Billy for Billy."

His face lit with a charming smile and his eyes shone brightly as he turned them to the rough hewn face of the detective, who appeared highly gratified.

Saxe took the sheet of paper out of his friend's hand and studied it with eager eyes. For the first time in days hope leaped in his breast.

"But I don't understand," he declared, echoing the others. "But I don't understand."

"I'll explain in a minute," Billy replied. "I have in mind first to exhibit this to you." He held up a sheet of paper which he had drawn from his pocket. It was of about the size of that on which Abernethy's composition had been written.

It showed two irregular lines running across it, drawn by pencil.

"Take your sweetheart?" That is the advice of the West Chicago park commissioners, who will stage the annual exhibition of chrysanthemums at the Garfield park conservatory from Nov. 9 to Dec. 1. About 5,000 specimens, representing 412 varieties of the flower, will be on display.

Washington Plans
Many Events for British Couple

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—(Special)—Col. Robert M. Thompson and his guests, Lord and Lady Mountbatten, who were expected in Washington today, have delayed their arrival until tomorrow. They will be in Washington through this week and many other events are planned for them. Col. and Mrs. Thompson will give a dinner for Lord and Lady Mountbatten on Wednesday; on Thursday night they will dine with Mrs. James Carroll Frazer and on Friday the British ambassador and Lady Geddes will entertain for them. Their program also includes an informal tea which Mrs. Lawrence Townsend is giving on Wednesday afternoon and a visit to the Pimlico race track on Friday as guests of Maj. Gen. Kephell Bethell of the British embassy.

On Saturday Lord and Lady Mountbatten will visit Annapolis. They will be entertained at luncheon and dinner by Rear Admiral Henry B. Wilson, superintendent of the naval academy, and Mrs. Wilson will give honor guests a call in the evening.

Courtesy Giszoka expects to sail shortly for Europe and will spend the early part of the winter abroad.

Col. and Mrs. T. A. Junkin of Chicago announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Julia Junkin Ravenel, to Col. Marion Somerville Battle. The wedding will take place about the middle of December at the home of Miss Goss and Mrs. Edward West Nicholson in Lexington, Va. Miss Ravenel spent the winter in Washington as the guest of Col. and Mrs. Junkin.

DAILY HOROSCOPE

Doris Blake Says:

TODAY IS A CONTRADICTORY DAY.

Conflicting are the planetary conditions for today. Good and evil planets rule, so that there will be disappointment for some and good fortune for others, particularly in political circles. Those out of the political arena will find the day much as other days, their good fortune depending upon the energy they exert themselves. Grief, trouble, and trouble through opposite sex, and many woes for those on those whose birthday this is, unless their conduct is governed in a manner to offset such.

The nature of one whose birthday is today is fiery, persistent, determined, but a certain hastiness, carelessness, and lack of tact will bring about the success which otherwise would be yours. You are great at planning and scheming, but not always successful. You have musical ability, but with more of dash and weirdness than method.

Just One Chance.

Dear Mr. Black: Recently I sent a letter to a young man I have been going with quite a while. I wrote intending to break off with him, but after sending it I found I really love him and don't know what to do to make up with him. Would you please advise me?

Hilda.

Just one chance left. Write him another telling him the truth, and trust to a kind and forgiving Providence that it will reach him in a meaningful mood.

Vertical Lines Give Height.

NEW YORK.—(Special Correspondence)—It often happens that one wants to wear something that is absolutely unsuited to one's individual style and figure. For instance, F. R. S. writes that he wears his new fall suit to be of a checked pattern, but some one told him such a suit would only accentuate the lack of height in his figure. F. R. S. wants to know why, and why stripes are better than checks.

It is a simple example of optical illusion. Notice the two outline sketches in the illustration. They are of the same size exactly, and yet the striped figure looks taller than the checked, the latter having an appearance of squatness. The muscles of our eyes do queer things. They move about and make us think we see what we actually do not. In the case of the vertical stripes, the eye follows the long lines up and down, and is never led sideways, while in the checked pattern the eye goes around in circles, first starting up only to be side-tracked by a horizontal line.

That is why a short man inclined to stripes should choose checkered prints, which have the effect, and should wear either plain material or vertically striped. Needless to say, horizontal stripes are even more unfortunate for a stout man than checks, as there is nothing to give an upward sweep to the eye.

As to the color of the material, the reason that light colors create an effect of bulk more than dark colors is due to the greater aggressiveness of the former. A dark color retreats, while a light color steps forward and hits one in the face.

The minister asked him the usual questions and then, "Have you four brothers?"

"No, but my sister has," was the quick reply.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

In a Moment of Aberration.

I was in love with a girl with whom I had had a serious misunderstanding, shortly after which she left home. We lived in a river town and during that summer another chap and I camped on its banks and entertained numbers of our friends. Naturally a great many small articles were left by our company, most of them never called for.

"My girl" returned from her visit in a mellowed mood, and one night I called. I felt nervous and wandered about the rooms downstairs while I waited for her appearance. Later I reached in my pocket for a handkerchief, and drew forth a beautifully engraved thimble. I did not remember where I had found it before, but decided it had been left behind by one of our summer visitors, so presented it to my sweetheart, explaining the method by which I thought it had come into my possession.

The next morning she showed it to her family. Her grandmother explained that it was exactly like the thimble she had been using in the living room the day before.

The next evening I was told about it and, much to my embarrassment, we all decided that during my nervous wanderings of the previous night I had unwittingly picked up the thimble and placed it in my pocket and then failed to recall the fact.

I am to marry the girl soon, but she always laughingly asks me, "Where did you get it?" whenever I bring her a gift.

"Mlle. Potpourri"
to Be Given Tonight
by the Service Club

The Service club's presentation of "Mlle. Potpourri" at the Aryan Grotto this evening at 8:30 o'clock will attract the usual fashionable crowd, which yearly attends the club's charity entertainments. The words and music of the musical revue are the work of Percy D. De Coster, who also has directed the rehearsals which have occupied a great part of the time of the members of the club during the past six weeks. Mrs. Helen Hecht, president; Witters will be in charge of a group of young women ushering and selling programs, including Mrs. James Cathcart, Miss Helen Hoyne, Mrs. Farley Hopkins, Mrs. William A. Fuller II, Mrs. John J. Mitchell Jr., Mrs. Daniel Winter, and Mrs. Philip Wrigley. The performance will be repeated tomorrow night. Following a short performance the club will have a dance at the Opera club, 18 West Walton place.

"Anglo-American Relations" was the subject of an interesting talk yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Clara Bentlage, 1005 North Dearborn street, the auspices of the Illinois Society of the Colonial Dames of America by Horace J. Bridges. Mr. Bridges opposed cancellation of foreign war debt to the United States. He gave many reasons for his opposition, chief among them being that cancellation of the debts would not discourage war. He advised that debts be repudiated on a reasonable basis for a long term of years with a good rate of interest.

Mrs. Warren C. Fairbanks of 66 Cedar street gave a luncheon yesterday at the Casino for Misses Catherine Carroll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carroll of the Ambassador hotel. "Miss Carroll," said Mrs. Fairbanks, "would have made her debut in Chicago this season, if her parents had not moved to Chicago recently."

Dr. Louis K. Anspacher will lecture on "Turgenev, the Artist," this morning at 11 o'clock at the Blackstone theater under auspices of the Chicago Drama League. Friday morning he will speak to "Polo, the Sport" at the same hour and the same place. The last lecture of the series next Tuesday will be at the residence of Mrs. Frederick L. Daniels, 1524 Lake Shore drive, when "Gorki, the Vagabond," will be discussed.

Four entertainments for the benefit of the Stockyards Day nursery have been arranged, the first to be held at the residence of Mrs. Lewis L. McArthur, 4724 Drexel boulevard, next Tuesday morning at 10:45 o'clock; the second at Mrs. Edward Morris' residence, 4890 Drexel boulevard, Nov. 21, the third on Nov. 28 at the residence of Mrs. Robert Stuart, 4850 Woodlawn avenue, and the last at the residence of Mrs. Edward Tilden, 5020 Woodlawn avenue, Dec. 5.

Mrs. Anthony French Merrill will give the first of five lectures on "Things Worth While for Leisure Hours" this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Wilhelm L. Baum, 1568 State parkway. "The New Importance of Thinking" will be discussed.

A banquet in the gold room of the Chicago on Wednesday evening, Nov. 16, will be the chief social feature of the second annual convention of the Illinois Society of the Colonial Dames, which opens next Tuesday and continues three days. Mrs. Edwin Ryerson is social chairman for the banquet and Mrs. Clair E. Morey is general chairman, from whom tickets may be secured.

Mrs. Frank McNamara of 1441 Dearborn parkway, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank M. Blase, wife of 411 Dearborn place, will be at home Monday, Nov. 20, from 4 until 6 o'clock, at the residence of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frank Elsener will give a dinner dance at the Oak Park Arms on Saturday evening, Dec. 20, for their son, Frank Van Sants, Elsener, who is returning from Dartmouth College.

Mrs. Calvin Dana Corbin of 20 West Burton place is at home after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. McKay, in Detroit.

ALTON SUIT HELD WEDGE IN ATTACK UPON 8 HOUR DAY

What, according to union leaders, has resolved itself into a fight for and against the eight hour day on railroads, was resumed before the United States railroad board yesterday.

The issue, on its face, is merely whether the Chicago and Alton railway, now in hands of the government, shall be permitted to observe a positive overtime and certain other changes affecting working conditions of train service employees.

W. S. CARTER.

Allegations charge that the issue is just an entering wedge, and that if the Alton, which they allege has been selected to start the fight because it is under federal management, is successful, all carriers will line up in a battle against the eight hour day.

Charges Attack on Progress.

The same men who today are trying to turn back progress were yesterday doing all in their power to speed up the movement, it being adopted," said the employee's chief spokesman before the board yesterday.

W. S. Carter, former president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and now chief of the research bureau of that organization.

"Every measure insuring humane treatment and the safety of railroad workers and their families is supported by representatives of the carriers," Mr. Carter asserted. "The air-brake, hours of service, automatic couplers, electric headlights, and every other safety device, now admired by railroad operating officials, were imposed desperately by these same officials through the compulsory adoption of existing laws."

Citing the federal eight hour day law, Mr. Carter contended the public abundantly had evidenced "heartily support" of the shorter day.

Seeks Writs' Dissolution.

While Mr. Carter was appearing before the labor board yesterday Attorney Donald R. Richberg, in federal

LEGION NEWS

Plans and programs for the coming year will be made at the meeting of the Illinois Soldiers, Sailors, Marines' Relief and Aid society Thursday evening at 17 Quincy street.

Immediately after the dinner the regular monthly meeting will be held at which nominations for officers for the ensuing year will be made. Reports of the annual state convention, etc., will be presented.

The initial performance of Charles Wakefield Cadman's "Shanewis," the first American opera to be presented by the new American Grand Opera company, will be opened with a patriotic tableau by Theodore Roosevelt past of the American Legion Thursday afternoon at the Studebaker theater.

More than 100 members of the Legion will be guests of the Legion post through the courtesy of Gilbert Wilson, general director of the opera company.

Save FEDERAL Coupons!

In force in all federal districts would court before Judge James H. Wilkerson, was seeking dissolution of the temporary injunction against railway shop crafts strike leaders.

Mr. Richberg, in support of a motion to dismiss, said that conditions prevailing when the restraining order was issued no longer exist, as one way or another, peace has been made on 125 roads. The order, he added, has illegal extraterritorial effect and is unnecessary, because federal injunctions protect property. Further, the attorney general's dissolution can do no harm as the court could reopen the case at any time.

Against this argument affidavits filed by Blackburn Esterline, assistant solicitor general, attested to conditions complained of in the original bill as still existing.

Reports of violence have occurred on several roads, according to these affidavits, and intimidation of employees and destruction of property have continued.

Following a session extending late into the afternoon, further hearing was postponed until tomorrow.

GRAINS QUICKLY OVERCOME BREAK AND SCORE GAINS

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Political developments in the near east were the dominating influence in the grain markets and while there was a small break early in sympathy with Liverpool, at no time was there any great pressure and it took but relatively little buying to make a sharp advance. Closing trades were at net gains of  $\frac{1}{2}$  to  $\frac{1}{4}$  cent on wheat,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent on corn,  $\frac{1}{2}$  to  $\frac{1}{4}$  cent on oats, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent on rye.

The most effective buying of wheat was by houses with eastern connections. Liberal covering by shorts was in evidence at times. The bulk of the new trading is going into the May, which sold at a new high for the season, while the July was within  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent of the best figure on the crop. The December-May spread narrowed to  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent at Saturday's last comparison with  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent at the opening of the December, and buying of May by commission houses.

Bulls Advance Cereals Prices.

Persistent buying of the nearby delivered cereals by commission houses and local bulls advanced prices to within a fraction of the best figures of the season. Offerings were not large and there was less pressure than expected, despite the decline of  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent in premiums, cash grain and prospects for an increased movement in the immediate future.

"White" oats showed a firm under-toning in sympathy with other grains. Trade was largely of a local character. Visible supply was reduced 1,387,000 bu and total stocks are less than half of last year.

A good export business was put through in rye and while Duluth was a fair seller of futures, offering some relief, the eastern markets showed a real though not strength than wheat. Export sales at the seaboard aggregated 56,000 bu.

Higher Rye on Provisions.

Buying by commission houses made a higher range for provisions early, but they weakened later under realizing sales and on pressure from smaller packers. Last finished unchanged to  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent lower.

The United Grain Growers Company of Canada passed its dividend yesterday, the first time since its organization, fifteen years ago. It has had 40 percent of the grain in the three western Canadian provinces, and has 36,000 members. The failure is attributed by the secretary to failure of a large part of its stockholders to contribute to the corporation, and to the lack of money available to the corporation to meet losses. Its surplus reserves to meet losses, its business aggregated $100,000,000 annually, possessing large elevators at terminals and in the interior, and does an export business, as well as operating stores and implement houses. The secretary adds that, while the Grain Growers company for $300,000. A picture of the hotel was given in this department last Sunday.

Charles F. Henry has taken title from Richard T. Davis to the southwest corner of Delaware place and Seneca street, 100 x 100, for $75,000 and intends eventually to move with a hotel, as announced since this morning.

Henry J. Popper has just transferred the site of the new Hotel Pearson at the northwest corner of Seneca and Pearson, 150x107, to the Pearson Hotel company for $255,000. A picture of the hotel was given in this department last Sunday.

Richard T. Davis has been president of the Martel Mills fifteen years.

Central Paper.

V. H. D.—The Central Paper company owns and operates a pulp and paper plant at Muskegon, Mich. It is issuing $100,000 of 6% per cent bonds, due serially on Oct. 1, 1925-42. These are secured by a first mortgage on the real estate, plant, and equipment, which on completion of improvements and additions now under way, will have a value appraised at about $1,000,000, or over 27 times the amount of the bonds. The improvements referred to are expected to double the capacity of the plant to 36,000 tons. The balance sheet as of July 31, 1922, after giving effect to present financing, shows assets of $1,000,000, or over seven times annual interest charges on these bonds. We rate these bonds as a business man's investment.

Nab Wilmette Child Elopers in Milwaukee—South Side "Wild Man" Taken as Firebug Suspect

PUPPY LOVE NIPPED IN THE BUD. Wallace Coffey, 18 years old, and Bernice Cook, 12, of Wilmette, who disappeared Sunday, are discovered in Milwaukee.

"JUST AN AVERAGE GIRL." That's the way the principal of Bernice's school characterizes her. Her father says he believes she was forced to go with Coffey.

HELD AS PYROMANIAC. Sgt. James Flaherty questioning John Sorrenti, "wild man" arrested last night as the one who started 30 fires in as many days on the south side.

GUESTS OF MRS. EDITH MCCORMICK AT TEA YESTERDAY. Left to right: Mrs. John Alden Carpenter, Mrs. Alexander Maximow, Mrs. Adolph Bolm, Gen. A. Volkoff, Dr. Alexander Maximow, of faculty of University of Chicago, and Mrs. McCormick.

TOOTING THEIR HORNS FOR ANDY. Loop crowds cheered yesterday when this band wagon appeared. If their smiles and shouts meant anything, Andy Gump, the man who "wears no man's collar," will be elected to Congress today.

ONE REASON WHY WISCONSIN WON. Taft, Badger full back, leaves a string of Minnesota players in his wake in one of his sensational plunges through Gopher line in game in which Wisconsin was victorious, 14-0.

The Democrats fought th to a standstill in the national election yesterday.

The huge Republican major in the present house of repres was practically wiped out.
plete returns may show that Democrats won control of that b latest returns showed the tw almost evenly matched in the
of members of the house s elected.

The present Republican ma
